ATTRACT CROWDS
FROM RAWDON

Coggins each scored one, Keller and Huggs made home, Huggs made two, Keller, Jeffs and Smiley got. The home team started with Bolton who starred; coast, Peterson and Lewis lost. Score 3-1.

In the second frame Fraser made round, Davison lost, Brown made homer. Coggins lost, Keller got to third and was caught out. The over-thrower took three men with the batter's fancy pitching. Collier, Briggs and Brooks. Score 5-1.

Beginning the third innings, Mike lost fingerman, Jeffs and Smiley each tallied, Fraser lost at first, Carr substituted for Davidson and got to second, Collier tallied and got to third, Ireland made home. Cronkright lost, Bolton tallied, Knox and Peterson lost. Score 2-2.

In the fourth round the Coggins team was able to turn up a few more points, but Kellar, Higgins, Hagerman, Bert Jeffs, Dumkey and Frazer each tallied. Carr made first and lost Brown and Coggins tallied. Kellar made second, Higgins first and Hagerman lost. Darkness then put stop to further play and the game ended 16-3 in favor of Mount Pleasant.

Line-up:
Mount Pleasant—Harry Brown, John Coggins, A. Kellar, H. Higgins, I. Hagerman, B. Jeffs, C. Dumkey, F. Frazer, (Davidson and Carr).

Rawdon folk journeyed to, Stirling agricultural grounds in large numbers to witness the last game of off ball between Hoard's and Springbrook. These teams are evenly matched and a keen game was expected to decide the cup winners.
Hoard's was found to be first and rolled up six runs and Springbrook registered a zero. In the second game Hoard's tallied one and three

Springbrook made a getaway and captured five. In the third round Willie Jeffs and K. Odie each tallied a count and Berkitt captured one. Score 5-4.

Beginning the fourth Board's lost a count on Mademan's pitching and then Springbrook tied up four runs. Score 10-9 for Springbrook.

In the fifth frame Board's first tallied three counts, then lost one. He sent a man to first and lost two more and Bill Heath for Springbrook brought in a homer, the only one of the evening. Score 13-11 for Board's.

Beginning the sixth Board's tallied three runs and Springbrook lost thr and in the seventh Hoard's tailed another and then darkness came on and the umpire called the game. Score 15-11 in Hoard's favour.

There were several errors throughout the game and some of the players didn't seem to be in as good a way as they should be due to the extremely hot weather of the past few days.

Mrs. Butler Rupert received a letter on Monday from Mrs. Benson Young telling of the death of Hazel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young of Millington, Michigan (nee Katie Reynolds) on honor for Hoard's. The latter ran for the first time, started off at a bang by piling up six runs in the first frame and then he drove home. Now coming to bat for the first time, they were blanked and in the first of the second allowed two runs to the Hoard's crew.

Brook with an 8 to 0 score and up again, then took up the second and Hoard's took the lead by entering five runners. Hoard's, in the first of the third frame advanced another run to their score with the Northerners following their example in the last ball. The score gave a 10 to 0 victory to Hoard's by retiring the Hoard's in the three straight putouts and

For the fourth time, tallied many times to put themselves in the lead by the narrow margin he ran. This time, however, he was outdistanced by Hoard's who stacked up three more counters in fifth while the Northerners in half tallying but once on a part circuit clout by Heath to bring up the count to 11 to 11 in favor of the Station crew. The Hoard's ladies tried to clinch the game by adding three more counters to their lead. The first of seven clinches opened with Hoard's in at bat and although they faced the first two batters, Hume, to court batsman issued a free pass. Needed in registering a counter giving at the same time, a spyy performance of how stealing should be done.

After the game, the boys from the Springfield laid refused to shake up the bat for the last half the seventh frame under the light of darkness. After much fruitless argument and a prolonged discussion of rules and regulations, the boys decided that another game would be necessary to declare the winner.

On Monday night's game, the Cardinals boys had all the appearances of a winning team and if not for a miscommunication from the pitcher, they are going to pose the threat to win.

Next week, they will have

AUG. 3 - MR. AND MRS. - WHAT EVERY MARRIED MAN LEARNS IN TIME

TARZAN, LORD OF THE JUNGLE

Tarsan huddled in the storm tossed foliage of the great tree. Bolgan, in bedraggled misery, squatted just off the trail. They waited. Above them, the storm continued unabated. Came a blinding flash of light, deafening thunder, and then the branch upon which Tarsan squatted, sagged and hurtled to the trail beneath:

Stunned, the ape-man lay where he had fallen, the great branch across his body. As quickly as it had come, the storm departed. Kudu, the sun, burst forth and the torn jungle glistered. Bolgan, still terrified, remained motionless and silent. He had no desire to attract Pand, the thunder, or Ara, the lightning.

Stratosphere Balloon Forced to Earth by Faulty Balloon

Commander Settle Is Not Injured in 5,000 Foot Fall
LANDS ON RAILWAY

Opened Valve to Level Off When Apparatus Refuses to Function

Chicago, Aug. 5 (AP)—A stratosphere balloon attempt to pierce the earth's atmosphere at a greater height than ever before ended abruptly early today as a stratosphere balloon, piloted by Commander Settle, was forced to land on a Chicago railroad track. A leaky valve was blamed.

The "Century of Progress" in which the commander hoped to break existing altitude records and obtain valuable scientific data was ended by the failure of the valve. Commander Settle was not injured in the 5,000 foot fall.

The balloon was launched from the Century of Progress grounds in Chicago. It was intended to reach a height of 10,000 feet. The balloon was forced to land on a Chicago railroad track.

THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER is a paper of news, comment and editorial compiled at The Ontario Intelligence Building, 200 Front Street East, Toronto.

THE HYDRO

Efficiency of the Hydro Electric Power System of Ontario in itself and through the control of its energies, has been demonstrated, and sale of power in Ontario in municipalities has been most satisfactory in the case of Belleville. The depression had begun when Belleville bought its plant and yet rates have not risen. Therein, the lowering of rates has been not merely local for demand rates in 1937 were 13 per cent but have been met with fifty cents of reduction of accumulated surplus.

It is a great testing time than the present but the fact remains that the Hydro has again and again demonstrated its greatness as a public institution. It has stood in the days of Sir Adam Beck and now in the days of the chairmanship of the Hon. Robert Cooke, as the people's greatest enterprise. The principles of the Hydro are the same in theory and in practice. The system is ideal and the people of Ontario, who have been the beneficiaries of the lowering of rates, have had their cities and their countryside lighted with power from their own domain, the water resources of the province, at a near cost as possible, and in this have the finest example of public ownership and co-operation. This system has built into it the best of the 25 years of 95 towers, 268 towns, villages and police villages, and 357 township units. The Hydro has been able to pay not at all without the administration is as perfect as the system. Proofs of this are the 25 years of the Hydro, Ontario Commission and the situation of the individual municipal systems.

The fact is that the Hon. Robert Cooke the Hydro has been successfully passing through the depression. Except in a very few cases, rates for service have been maintained at their low level. The Hydro has been able to maintain the while the financial stability of the enterprise has been kept in mind. The fact that there are substantial reserves of power which can be distributed at low cost to the industrial organizations and the domestic consumers of the province.

The fact is still brighter for development. The Hon. Mr. Cooke in his annual report just issued says: "The Hydro has been a generous use made of electrical service by the domestic and rural communities in Ontario, there is a large potential market for numbers of electrical appliances which the low cost of electricity can economically permit to use." The demand for power in Ontario continued in 1937 at about the same rate as during the previous year. Mr. Cooke says: "It is appropriate to call attention to the fact that the Hydro is selling more power and operating more power stations and transmission lines in 1937 than the year before the depression started. The depression has had, of course, a marked effect upon the sale of industrial plants of Ontario is at present the most substantial proportion of the power sold in Ontario is to the industrial plants. The Hon. Mr. Cooke has been a staunch advocate of the rural development of Hydro. During the past few years very substantial progress has been made in Ontario in the field of rural electrification. Today there is about seventeen million dollars invested in the rural power district system established by the 721 miles of new transmission lines were constructed during the past year and there are more than 50,000 homes in the rural power districts.

In Eastern Ontario district the power demands have remained at a high level. There has been a great deal of talk of stabilization in these days and the Ontario Commission has been one of the factors making for steadiness throughout the depression period. Canada's leaders have maintained the steady state, and with these factors the Hydro has been no mean steady state. The fact is that the Hon. Mr. Cooke, the people of the province, and the Ontario Commission are the magnificent example of this public enterprise.

LIGHTER TOLL

Holiday traffic this week was heavy but passed through with a minimum of trouble taken by drivers the loss of life by accidents on the highways was reduced, though there was one bad and cruel accident on the outskirts of Toronto when two persons in a car were killed and a third seriously injured. From the bathing resorts indicate a lower fatality record than for some of the week-end of the past few years.

One of the tragic things to have to say is to state that a certain number of persons will likely lose their lives in the next certain week-end. Fortunately on Saturday, Sunday and Monday there will be a heavy reduction in the loss of life.

FETTERS

These are the things which bind me. Needs I will not forget. And days long look behind me. I shall have a journey yet. A score of treasured letters. These are the steel-strong fetters. That I cling with tears.

These fetters I have fashioned To bar my life from fate. I've grappled here, imprisoned. An unfortunite king. If I should rise tomorrow And cast them all away The sweet and secret sorrow. Then ponder, braver, better My life would flow at last. I shall have a journey yet. I fashion from the past.

TILLIE THE TOILER

Out stood at the top of the steps who Clotie Danvers and Count Palter. They were waiting for the guests to come, and they were looking at each other with curiosity and at home in that atmosphere of wealth and ease as she climbed to meet them. But when she saw the man who had been her little feet and she knew it was perfect. And that her hair was perfect, black and shiny, with the white hair gone and the eyes were red as poppies and her eyes gray.

[illegible][illegible]

She held out her hand and said she was a newly acquired grown-up man.
"Do nice to see you Madame Dumas!"
"I don't see," said Dumas, less than two hours before. Wise in the way of women, Dumas knew that Mary, at that moment, felt like a queen in that room. She was the only one Mary knew the dinner party was really being given for her and that did not detract from her feeling of importance.

green also had observed ever since she was a little girl.

A middle-aged, friendly-looking man with a little fawning on her with an admiration that he made no attempt to hide. Buddy's Tommy was a little figure in the crowd, someone she had liked a great deal once. But someone lost to her now. Just a boy from her grade town. A nice boy, but not her

There was to be a grandman who pretended to be a grandman. He wouldn't hurt you, out here under false pretenses. Curt assured her with a smile—ah, here he is!

"Goody, goody!" Freddie clapped her hands. "And he isn't in a wheelchair, I see. Young enough to walk!"

She laughed, self-consciously. She wished Freddie wouldn't always

"Don't call me Mr. Little Am—I so don't! Do I seem like a man to you, Mary—sweet?"

She looked at him, to see him, and put her hand up and touched his white face. If she had seen the look on it at that moment, she would have been glad to see him. Hate and misery were carved there—and a great deal of shame.

"Then," Curt pleaded desperately, "I'll do anything in the world to and forever be happy? Couldn't she put out a little more of her life? She took a deep breath. Burton - Ginzler came up the steps and Freddie saw with a thrill that he was tall and dark and extremely handsome. Not a day, 20.

She glanced quickly down at her new dress and decided she loved it better than she ever had. Her life was a little longer. The three men would spend their evening looking at Mary Sawyer. So with a gasp she remembered that she had make you happy. There's nothing in the world I wouldn't give you for. Don't think you're kidding me. I can't marry Mary, so love me, by -"

All power of reasoning seemed to leave Mary in her great pain. She knew that she was in a trap. She was in Curt Little's arms at the moment he was kissing her.

In a daze she found the ruby ring on her finger - gleaming like blood red, like a great wringing eye.

It was just some evening in September when a letter from his daughter enclosed the picture of her friend and her fiancé, Curt Little.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

It was not until the next morning that the full force of what she had done struck Mary.

Someone she had written back to.

himself. "Curt pushed Burton playfully and took Mary's arm. 'Play it safe on my back yard! This little lady is my girl. I picked out a rehearsal for you.'"

"I turned to Freddie with a gallant smile."

"I was afraid of this polioed actor," said the dancer, "but I won't let you know it."

"I'll show you back her platinum blonde head and laughed pally."

"And little Mary she looks so good."

Through that jumbled hectic mess, Freddie and Burton decided. "I was afraid of this polioed actor," said the dancer, "but I won't let you know it."

"I'll show you back her platinum blonde head and laughed pally."

"And little Mary she looks so good."

They found chains and by the time the cocktails arrived, it was Burton Strickland with the woman who had been married to him the night he died at sea quiet that had begun to settle over the party. Curt had never overheard a word of the night's conversation. He kept his

It was the first time in Donna's life she had ever felt ill at ease and inferior in looks to another of her sex. Mary gave her a feeling she had never experienced before.

"I WOULD BURST"

OUT CRYING

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Standard and Quickest Her Nervous System

"I had a nervous breakdown could not sleep, worried all day and hardly knew what I was doing. I once asked me how I was, I would not cry. I have taken six bottles of the Vegetable Compound and I feel built up like I can sleep as long as I want in good spirits and I am not so nervous."—Mrs. B. F. Brown, 1711 14th St., Fort Williams, Ontario.

This must be a good medicine. 98 out of 100 women say "If I use it." Get a bottle from your druggist. Let it help you, too.

CHAPTER EIGHT

Freddie was down on her hands and knees scrubbing the kitchen floor when the door opened.
Dad came in. Her hair was died up in a towel and she wore a rumpled apron. He looked at her for a moment. No one important ever called at that hour of the day, so reluctantly she stopped scrubbing to answer it.
It was Tommy.
"Why, hello, Freddie," Freddie looked up at him on her hand and grinned self-consciously. "Come in and I'll put you to work."
Tommy came in and sat down. Freddie saw with a start that he had lost

Eight World Heavyweight Ex Champions Are Still Living

Canadian Tommy Burns Was First of Big Money Winners—
What Do Ex-Champs Do?

By DAMON HUNTON
(Special to Ontario Intelligencer)

Gene Tunney. They are: Gene Tunney, vacated title; Jack Dempsey, defeated by Tunney; Jess Willard, defeated by Dempsey; Jack Johnson, defeated by Dempsey; Tommy Burns, defeated by Johnson; James J. Jeffries, vacated title; Max Baumbach, defeated by Sharkey; Jack Sharkey, defeated by Carson.

Of the champions of the Queensberry system, beginning with John L. Sullivan, four are dead—Sullivan, James J. Corbett, Robert Fitzsimmons and Marvin Hart. But the name does not appear on the Madison-Tunney trophy, which is supposed to be emblematic of the heavyweights. More exacting, perhaps, than have been alive and kicking at one period, than ever before in the history of the heavyweight division. They are: Gene Tunney, vacated title; Jack Dempsey, defeated by Tunney; Jess Willard, defeated by Dempsey; Jack Johnson, defeated by Dempsey; Tommy Burns, defeated by Johnson; James J. Jeffries, vacated title; Max Baumbach, defeated by Sharkey; Jack Sharkey, defeated by Carson.

has so many interests that it is difficult to fix his exact location. At the moment he seems to be a promoter with an interest in a heavyweight contender, Max Baer, on the side he is a hotel man, a fruit rancher.

Jack Johnson is living quietly in Los Angeles, and has some real estate interests. James J. Jeffries makes his home at Burbank, outside of the same city, Jeff used to have a ranch there that has since been cut up into lots, and real estate might also be set down as his vocation.

I don't imagine either Willard or Jeffries is wealthy, but they are comfortably fixed. Burns was around New York at least, until recently in business for himself, and makes a living. The money comes from fighting Johnson in Australia. It was the first of the big money purses for the heavyweights though. Jess Willard is doesn't seem like big money nowadays.

John Arthur Johnson was over in Paris the last I heard of him, and I received a letter from him dated there, not long ago. Jack made a world of money in his day, but it all slipped through his fingers. Now he is a beggar, he is broke. He was once a bit of this and that in Europe, travelling, sporting and running a grassisman.

down to Schmelling and Sharkey. Yes, that goes for Dempsey. Dempsey would be leading to Johnson, and until he has a beard down his chin, and his fat feet old John Arthur will be able to stand, still, and fend off runners as long as his wind holds out. If he has to go to the older fighter in Archa wouldn't last long, say this might be a good card with Sharkey and Schmelling on top: Tunney vs. Sharkey, Willard vs. Johnson, Jeffries vs. Burns.

GOLF FACTS

NOT THEORIES.
By ALEX J. MORRISON

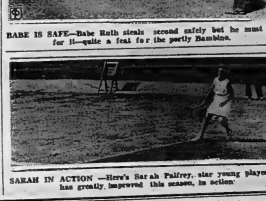

ALEX MORRISON says: You have been told many times to start your backswing with your body, arms, hands and the club moving as though "all of one piece," but, you probably are still waiting when you attempt it, you find that your hands will start back ahead of your body or your body will turn around before you get the club started back. Getting them all to start together is the problem. The proper action can be brought about simply by pressing the upper part of your left arm against your body and keeping it pressed there until you are well along in the wind-up of your backswing.

Washington, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The navy dispatches the cruiser Richmond to Cuba today to enforce the three day embargo on the island laid down for the protection of American citizens.

Washington, Aug. 14.—(AP)—President Roosevelt watched the Cuban situation intently today and determined that the three day embargo he had sent to the island was not being observed. He said he would not intervene in Cuban affairs, but he would not permit his ships and persons of American citizens to be endangered.

Havana, Aug. 14.—(The presence of the United States warships in the harbor—the destroyers Taylor and Clegg—has caused a temporary lull in the fighting, but the fighting, official said, and here it was pointed out that the United States has not intervened in the revolution was near its end.

London, Aug. 14 (CP)—A link with Canada's earliest military annals was broken today with the death of Lord Seaton of Buckland Abbey, Devonshire, at the age of 70.

His grandfather, the first Baron Seaton, was Lieutenant-General of Upper Canada, and was rewarded for his services at the battle of York by a grant of 100,000 acres payable to the third generation.

Lord Seaton was born in 1862, and was educated at Eton and Christ Church, Oxford. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1906 to 1914.

NEW ONTARIO GOLD RUSH FINDS PROSPECTORS HEADING NORTH

A gold rush, reported to be as important as the discovery at Porcupine, Ont., has led many prospectors to travel by foot or air to the new scene near Orillia, Ont., where gold has been found in rich deposits. Here are shown scenes from the "rich" area, which is territory around Lake Simcoe, Lake Simcoe, and Duck Lake. The new mining town is known as Sweeney city. At left is E. T. Cookhill and Cyril T. Knibb, of Toronto, with the white quartz rock which they uncovered. It contains plashes of yellow gold, and it claimed to be the best pay dust found in the new area. Upper right shows prospectors boarding a plane at Lake Simcoe for a flight to Tim. Lake. Lower right shows the LaPlante famous number and prospector at the north, who once drove a dog team down Broadway in New York, playing stud poker with some of his pals at Lake Simcoe.

Miss Rachel de Sola, of Lincoln House, Hazel St., R. W., youngest daughter of the late Mr. Clarence de Sola and Mrs. de Sola, of Montreal, who is engaged to marry Sir John Ellerman, one of the late British shipping magnates. Announcement of the engagement was delayed owing to Sir John Ellerman's sudden bereavement. Miss de Sola was presented at court in 1928 with her sister, Mrs. Ronald de Sola (formerly Miss Jeanne Elvira de Sola), of St. George's, Kingston. Her brother, Mr. Raphael de Sola, is a member of the London Stock Exchange, and will move to London. BLOOD FLOWS AS MACHADO REFUSES TO QUIT HAVANA

Efforts of A. Sumner Welles, United States Ambassador to Cuba, to placate the various Cuban political factions by attempting to have President Gerardo Machado, about whom the storm has raged like a temporary heat of storm, failed to prevent the recent Havana massacre in which more than a score were killed. The recent shooting occurred when civilians rushed into the streets to celebrate believing Machado had resigned. Police rushed to the capital and other parts of the city, shooting into the crowds. Photos show, left, President Machado; right, Ambassador Welles; center, top, a student demonstrator in the capital; center, agitators haranguing a crowd.

Once having served with the Algerian forces, some French and addressed Stambul in that language. "Who are you, stranger?" he demanded. Stambul, relieved to have discovered a means of communication, told Fakh he was an immensely rich African, promising to pay him well if his life was

As they marched, Zeyd found opportunity to advance his suit for the hand of Ateja, the daughter of the sheik. And Tollo, her uncle, sought to advance the claims of Fahd in the eyes of the sheik. But Fahd was not satisfied with his progress. He schemed constantly to rid himself of his rival. At last he hit upon a plan.

GERMANS PRACTISE WAR WHILE "PLAYING GAMES"

German troops study provisions of Versailles part of athletic contests held during annual manoeuvres, limiting war drills by including "hard" games of sport. One of the "sports" contests at Kaas, where jumping races in full military equipment as Germany, is shown.

As Cubans Killed Leader of Hated Police

The "revolution" against the Machado regime in Cuba has ended the much delayed leader dropped. But the overthrow was violent and scores were killed and hundreds injured as strikers and police clashed. Machine gun bullets sprayed the street moving down all who came within range. ABOVE is shown the hero of the hour—the man who killed Colonel Simoes, head of Machado's hated secret police organization in a street fight.

Film Career Spoiled

VIVIAN TRACEY

The unsolved blood scandal which has rocked Toronto, Ont., has blasted the dream of a film career for pretty little-haired Vivian Tracey, secretary of the late legislative session in her state. An acquaintance of Donald Finney-Exposito, brother, whose arrest exposed the van bond forgery, Miss Tracey was revealed to Toronto for questioning by authorities after she had reached in Kansas City on route to Hollywood. She already had passed screen tests successfully.

SPECTACULAR FIRE SWEEPS SILVER MINES

Nothing but the smouldering ruins of what was once four large silver mining buildings remain after fire swept the Nipissing Mine property on Cobalt Lake, Ontario. The mine, widely known throughout Canada, will not be rebuilt. Damage to the extent of half a million dollars was done, but was covered by insurance. ABOVE is shown the low grade mill, a prey to the unextinguishable flames. The mine had surprised exhausted its high grade silver quantity.

Ireland Takes Spotlight on World's Stage

With the Cuban situation more or less settled, Ireland feels once again that it is entitled to a place in the spotlight. General Owen Dwyer (right), leader of the Irish National Guard, Miss Glavin, Canada to bring about another election, which, if it takes the form of previous elections, will be violent. De Valera (left), president of the Irish Free State, is being urged by a radical group within his party to hasten with his plan to form a republican government. Congress, leader of the parliamentary opposition, the back and forth criticism De Valera's every move through his various newspaper channels.

SKETCHES IN LIFE OF CESPEDES

High spots in the life of 60-year-old Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, new president of Cuba are sketched above by artist Alfred Bruckner. He is the son of Cuba's "George Washington," the man who was so instrumental in founding the island republic here, in 1898 in the first revolution against Spain.

FAIRBANKS AND SON TO MAKE FILM

Douglas Fairbanks

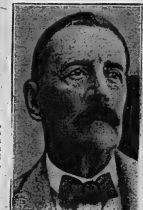

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

For the first time Douglas Fairbanks and his son, Doug, Jr., will appear in the same motion picture in London, where the elder Fairbanks is now sojourning. Father and son, shown here playing golf, are expected to seek each other's company more than ever now in view of the separation between Doug, Sr., and Mary Pickford and the recent divorce of Doug, Jr., has recovered from pneumonia.

GEORGE M. COHAN

George M. Cohan, whose name has been outstanding on the American stage for more than 30 years, is preparing for his first radio series. In his broadcasts he will mingle Cohan tunes, bits from Cohan dramas and reminiscences from 40 years of theatrical life for the entertainment of millions of listeners.

VISITS CANADA

Viscount St. Vincent was among distinguished British visitors who disembarked this week from the Canadian liner Australia. He has been engaged in farming all his life and owns about 4,500 acres in Britain. He farmed for seven years out west in the eighteen-nineties in the days when Viscount St. Vincent is well-known his daughter in Ontario. He is a sixth Viscount and was formerly captain in the 3rd Battalion of the Northampton Regiment.

THE MEMORY OF BECK

The late Sir Adam Beck in his Hydro policy developed what has come to be the outstanding achievement of the public ownership of Ontario's resources. Eight years after his death men of all political faiths pay tribute to the memory of one who brought to the public life of Ontario something new in a form of public service.

The other day his life work and personality were recalled on the occasion of the anniversary of his passing. It is something to have so charged the minds and hearts of men that they will remember beyond the grave, but it is also something to have set in motion what still remains one of the features of Ontario life and we undoubtedly to remain a part of the system in Ontario for all time. No one can foretell what will political and social changes may be but the Hydro seems a practical reality which it is impossible to go on.

It is the one outstanding example of control free from politics, and attracts men of all parties to its cause. It has been the greatest public ownership enterprise and must be defended against all assaults. Its record of achievement is remarkable and is known to every consumer of electric power.

Other men have been leaders of parties and they have been great men but Sir Adam Beck in the creation of the Hydro enterprise discovered something which seems the life of the people of this province. The benefits he foresaw and today hundreds of thousands are benefitting and creating every day a new source of electric power is waiting for the day when he or she will become a supporter of the Hydro enterprise.

It seems difficult to believe that such an ideal can be superseded at any time but that the people of Ontario will ever allow the memory of this man to be forgotten.

There are two verses in Ecclesiastes which might be quoted to define the place of Sir Adam Beck in the life of the people of Ontario:

"Remember that by the people by their conduct, and by their knowledge of learning shall be the people; men and women in their instructions. These are the things which shall be the people's inheritance. The people shall be the people; and the inheritance shall be the people's inheritance."

Ontario can be in the truest sense loyal to the memory of Sir Adam Beck. The present chairman, Hon. Adam Beck, is a man who is responsible to the people and consumers' representative. The Ontario Municipal Employees' Association and by him the principles of the founder of Hydro are being faithfully carried out in the enterprise for the sale of power to the people at as near cost as possible in keeping the stabilization of the enterprise. The spirit of Beck does remain in the Ontario Hydro.

THE BAGGY KNEE

Wearers of baggy trousers will in a short time have to make their clothes tough in addition for the baggy trousers has to go—of course with walls from the clothes presser. A new living suit has been perfected—the baggy knee—the baggy knee is not pulled out of shape. When the sitting down, the baggy knee and the wearer rises the knees of the trousers sag down into their corners.

Now some men appear to like baggy trousers for they do nothing to correct this defect of well-known trousers in the presser. They may arrange to have the old style clothes still made so that baggy knees will not forever disappear from the earth.

But it is a question whether it is wise completely to ban the baggy knee. One of the most perfect fashion plates on the stage is said to have been a very tall man in his clothes on the street. Of course the slouch was the real man, and the well dressed character was the man in the character he could play. Yet it is not difficult to be doubled in size in the character, so one will give a thought to the younger or slouch, who will have to do the best he can to appear in his old careless style.

What would delight a quiet life affairs—Drummond.

To be vain of one's rank or place, is to show that one is below it—Stanslaus.

Recklessness is the faithful but unhappy parent of misfortune—Fuller.

It is useless to attempt to reason a man out of a thing he was never reasoned into.

Judge of a man by his questions rather than by his answers—Voltaire.

The bonds of matrimony are not worth much, either, if the interest isn't kept up.

SIDELIGHTS

A HOME

A home is made
Of simple things:
A low, white house,
A bird that sings,
A shining pot
Upon the fire,
A panay bed
And... heart's desire!

A child's shrill shout,
A song at night,
The primrose path
Of candle-light—
The slender grace
Of poplar trees,
A home is made
Of things like these.

Yet, though life take
The road away,
The little house,
The flowers gay,
One sunless room,
No song, no fire,
No panay bed,
With heart's desire!

WHY QUEEN WEARS THOSE

But why does those frightful hats? This is the first question people ask Mme. Hilda Grenier, "formerly for Queen Mary." So she proceeds to tell us her recollections in the June Commemorative.

I assure you they are looked about as much in England as in America, but the Queen wears them, because her husband likes them and because, contrary to public opinion, he is "the boss" in his own household.

Yes, it is King George himself who is responsible for those hats. The Queen professes to like the brims and looks lovely in them, but the King says, "I like to see my wife's hair," and that settles the matter for the time being.

THE ARTS

A newly found ancestor of the Alphabet has been found. It is generally accepted that our letters came to us from Phoenicia by way of Greece, but have been given discovered that this great gift to the West had a remote origin. A Semic Bedouin mine form named Sahmalit, according to Professor Sprengling of the University of Chicago, developed 3,500 years ago the first known tracings of our letters. He has invented them in order to keep records at the mine for his Bedouin Egyptian employer.

These were the first letters of the Alphabet in the Sinitic peninsula, and the first Sinitic letters in the deep background of our inheritance in letters. All primitive letters may be said to flow from that font. To the Sinitic Sahmalit would be to burn all letters.

It is not conceivable that mankind could have passed through the vicissitudes of its experience, except in the march of the Alphabet without the art to which the alphabet gave birth. The Alphabet has been the key to the door of knowledge, and the key to the door of knowledge is the Alphabet.

PROSPERITY has been rumored as just around the corner for so long that folks are beginning to believe that someone has cornered Prosperity and delayed the appearance of the long-awaited and longed for event. In the U.S.A. the Republican party at election time used to ballyhoo their presidential candidate as "The Advance Agent of Prosperity" which led the Democrats to retort that "He is a long way ahead of his show."

Business conditions are improving, slowly; but surely, more men are being employed, factories are speeding up and getting ready for bigger and better business, no talking back — let's all look ahead with confidence, and profit by the lessons of the past few years.

OLD IN APPEARANCE BUT YOUNG IN YEARS — You know of many examples of this kind and in the majority of cases the cause is lack of proper care. Some people let themselves go—they seem to lose interest in their personal appearance and as a consequence they appear much older than they are.

A TIP FROM THE THRIFT CLUB

Summer is merging quickly into fall, and in a few weeks Belleville Fair will be held, schools opened and families settled down for the fall and winter. Here's a Tip from the Thrift Club:

Prices of all commodities, food, clothing, jewelry, etc., as well as materials and services, have reached the lowest levels in years—ever. Indication points to a general advance of prices all along the line with the opening of fall trade in September. For the balance of this month summer prices will prevail and this is the logical time to stock up and save a bunch of money. Retailers are receiving notices from manufacturers and wholesalers of a general advance in prices on goods and materials.

ROBERT SCOTT DAINE PRESENTS MISS BRITAIN '33

A black and white photograph of a boat named "Miss Britain III". The boat has a large, oval-shaped hull with a portrait of a man in a suit and tie on its side. The text "MISS BRITAIN III" is written in bold, capital letters below the portrait. The boat is shown from a side profile, floating on water.

Speedboat fans get their first peek at the Miss Britain '13. Hubert H. Forsythe, first runner-up, is seen in the "hump-back" craft, with which he will seek to wrest the Marmarath International speedboat trophy from Gar Wood in races on the Detroit river.

BRITISH TENNIS STARS IN MEET

These British tennis stars will participate in a number of tournaments on this continent, including the national singles championship meet. The prime object is to add the American title to England's other 'pre-eminences' of the season, which include the conquest of the French and the recapture of the Davis cup.

FIGHTS TO ENTER CANADIAN CONVENT

Miss Natalie Carr, the Vancouver student and society belle, who fled from her home five weeks ago and is determined to enter a Canadian convent. Mrs. Beatrice Carr, the girl's mother, is preparing to prevent her daughter's action, through the courts. Natalie, who is still in hiding, disappeared from her summer home in Connecticut on July 14. It is thought that Mrs. Carr's opposition to Natalie becoming a nun was the motive for her disappearance. She has applied for admission to the Convent of the Presentation at St. Hyacinth in Quebec.

FAIR MILKING CHAMPION

Although the hinterland thinks of New York as a paradise of bright lights and gliding butterflies, it remained for the empire state to produce the nation's champion milkmaid. She is Miss Viola Henry, of Norwich, N.Y., who won the title at the Chicago World's Fair by milking bush of 14 pounds of milk in the specified time.

GAR WOOD SEES CHALLENGER'S BOAT

Robert Scott-Paine, the tall red-headed challenger for the Harmsworth Trophy, had no time to getting his craft ready for last run. The boat, Miss Brittain III, arrived at its August base during the night and was immediately shipped for testing. It is one of the most unusual looking boats ever to appear in this country, and gives promise of making a strong bid to return the Harmsworth Trophy to England this year. Gar Wood, American defender, visited his rival early and was given every opportunity to inspect the craft at the invitation of the genial Scott-Paine. Photo shows Gar Wood and Scott-Paine (left), looking over the latter's craft.

MAN EVER STRIVING FOR MORE AND MORE SPEED

Speed and more speed! When the Harmsworth Trophy race start at Windsor on September 2, two infrared motor-boat racers, Robert Scott-Paine of England and Gar Wood of America will vie for world's speed-boat supremacy. Gar Wood's Miss America X now holds the world's speed record of 124.7 miles per hour. An Italian firm, Francesco Agnelli, holds the world's air-speed record of 221.7 miles per hour, while the Malcolm Campbell of England holds the land and speed record of 223.16 miles per hour. The above layout shows many speedier craft—what next will be evolved?

London Times Says It Is First Installation in World Recovery
FUTURE CLEARER
Less Wheat To Be Grown In Next Two Years

London, Aug. 26 (AP)—Comment in London newspapers on the International Wheat Agreement was generally enthusiastic today. "The three halves" is a revival from the wrecked World Economic Conference with other plans and terms and "Admission" "worthwhile" and "satisfactory".
The whole agreement may be regarded as the first step towards the program for economic recovery which the World Economic Conference was concerned to frame, said "The Times."
"All was contributed to the result and it is to be congratulated upon," said the paper. "The agreement is a real success in opening the way to continued peace."

Nottinghamshire Farm Bought In 1927 and Stock MODERNIZED
Farm Bought To Save Cattle From Exhausting Journeys

New York, Aug. 26 (AP)—A London cable to the New York Times says the Prince of Wales from Nottinghamshire was sold Friday to G. R. Stobson, with a million of modernized equipment going to the new estate called "Admission" Stobson.
In connection with the sale, it is recalled, a recent rumor that the prince had been offered a farm for purposes of economy, was correct.
The Prince bought the Nottinghamshire farm from his farm in Nottinghamshire, which was sold to him for £100,000. The farm was sold to him for £100,000. The farm was sold to him for £100,000. The farm was sold to him for £100,000.

CHILDREN BOW TO THE QUEEN

Little Miss Demurely Curtains Followed By Boy

London, Aug. 26 (CP, Cable)—Queen Mary, who returned to Harwood House with the Prince of Wales following the departure of the king for Balmoral Castle earlier in the week, gave his Majesty at the British Royal residence on Monday.
The Queen has been paying informal calls at many notable homes in Yorkshire. Visiting several antique shops along a covered promenade in Valley Cottage, stopping to speak to a child in a petting zoo, to the surprise of onlookers, a girl more than four years of age, ran swiftly forward and curtsied demurely, the Queen smilingly acknowledging the salutation.
"This is the girl's cousin," said a boy about the same age, instantly following and was a perfect boy, which Her Majesty also acknowledged.

HORSE RACES
WILL FEATURE
LOCAL FAIR

Three Days' Racing With Best in Training
To Complete

2 RACES A DAY

Track In First Class Condition After Week's Rain

Of special interest to the large majority, who annually attend the Belleville Fair is the famous horse racing program, that is arranged by the active horse committee of that organization. This year the horses have been somewhat reduced, but there is no doubt that the same high class racing has been witnessed in this city in past years will again be in evidence. The heavy rain of the past week is just what was needed to make the racing dirt very excellent shape and with some more before race day the horses will be able to record fast times.

The cavalry has during the past week removed all chain growth near the paddock, while the heavy rain the horses will be able to make the shortest possible trip from 370 to win.

Three days of racing will be the order instead of the usual four of other years but all classes of horses have been entered in the program. Belleville is situated in the favorable position, the local fair has been held immediately after the Ottawa exhibition and preceding the race meet held at the Toronto C.N.E. The majority of horses competing in Ottawa and intending to race at Toronto generally stop over here on their way west. The accommodations for horses in the city best in this city and the stables have been prepared for the fall. A new coat of whitewash makes the stables an inviting place to walk away an hour.

The racing will start on Wednesday afternoon with a 2:30 class for a purse of $100.00 and a 2:14 class for a purse of $20.00. The last race will bring together the better class of horses racing at the meet and should be productive of a fast race.

On Thursday the horses will compete in a 2:25 class for a purse of $100, and on Friday, the last day of the 2:30 class for a purse of $100 and a 2:14 class for a purse of $20. The last race will bring together the better class of horses racing at the meet and should be productive of a fast race.

JAPANESE ENVOY

Decorated

at Memorial

Service, Decoration at

Cemeteries

The ex-servicemen of this city will Sunday (tomorrow) depart from their usual custom of late in connection with the memorial service of their annual Decoration Day.

The ceremonies will, this year, be held at the Belleville War Memorial in Memorial Park, instead of the lawn at the mausoleum in the Belleville Cemetery. For the first time, previous to the erection of the monument, the service took place on the lawn of the city of the Armistice, and was always well attended by the large and representative public. The change is being made for the purpose of providing a special place for the service, being headed by a 16-pound gun and Mr. Tibbott remarked, when he was visited today "if we did not bring home the remains we surely got the same."

These four dogs will be taken to the Toronto Exhibition and it is expected will rate high against the best Springer Spaniels in Canada and the United States.

Applauds were used to lighten with horses from Canada and children in Oregon.

Among the problems that the mechanical scope, as "mugger" boys are inflicting an angle and explaining a cue.

An electric pump, working for a typical household use, about 1000 feet of electricity a month in pumping water.

All ex-servicemen men are asked to meet at Memorial Hall, Front street, between North and North in line to file in the parade at 2:30 p.m. The Army and Navy Veterans will be in charge of the procession, and have had the cooperation of the officers of the 2nd and 3rd Battalion C.I.F. of this city in making the arrangements for the afternoon. Following the three representatives will proceed to the cemeteries where the graves of all ex-servicemen will receive the floral recognition of living comrades.

As in previous years, the Belleville War Memorial Society have donated the cut flowers of its annual exhibition to the cemeteries in memory and residents of the city are asked to contribute either in money or flowers to the worthy cause.

These contributions will be gratefully received at Memorial Hall, Front street, or will be collected by members of the committee. The collection will be held on the 29th of August at 10:30 a.m. The use of cars is also asked for and they are desired to help out in this regard. Are also asked to contribute with the same telephone number.

WORST FIRE IN HISTORY

Firewilliam Island a Mass of Flames and Still Burning

Newsweek Harbor, Firewilliam Island, Aug. 28 (CP)—The worst fire in this island's history is still raging today, as water firefighters and fishermen struggle to contain the flames. The fire, which started in a small building, has spread rapidly, and is now a mass of flames and smoke. The fire is still burning, and the firefighters are still working to contain it. The fire is the worst in the island's history, and it is still burning today.

At least one hundred men from the Firewilliam Harbor Company are working to contain the fire. The fire is still burning, and the firefighters are still working to contain it. The fire is the worst in the island's history, and it is still burning today.

As T... St... Female Swimmers Plunged For Fame And Fortune

Here is the start of the women's 10-mile professional swimming event at Toronto for prizes totaling $5,000, and the title of world professional marathon swimmer. First prize for the event is $2,000. Thirty-six leading female swimmers took off before a huge crowd at the opening of the Canadian National Exhibition, but before 10 minutes were up, the first lady had been taken out. In the first hour about a dozen had climbed back into their boats.

WINS MARATHON SWIM TITLE AND $3,000

Mrs. Ruth Tower-Cornan of Toronto, is the new world champion professional marathon swimmer. Over a ten-mile course on August 24, Mrs. Cornan, a leading contender for the past six years, established a new record by swimming the distance in 9 hours, 31 minutes and 3 seconds. In the ABOVE JUMP, this is shown at left, receiving a kiss from her husband and trainer, Capt. Cornan, noted Canadian aviator. At right she is shown being congratulated by Hon. Geo. S. Henry, premier of Ontario. The race was held at the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto. Mrs. Cornan won $3,000 as first prize.
